

Weston on the Green to Peat Pits and Stonepits and back behind Staplehurst Farm

A 3.7 mile circular walk across to the Stonepits and back by Stonehouse Farm and Staplehurst Farm.

Starting at the Village Hall, go up the footpath past the Hall alongside the stream.

At the end of the path, cross Westlands Avenue diagonally right and continue down the Oxfordshire Way between the bungalows.

Go through the kissing gate and continue down the right hand side of the field, through the next kissing gate and down the narrow path between houses on the right and field fence on the left.

Continue through the next kissing gate and out into North Lane, turn right and continue up North Lane for a short distance to turn left at a finger post on the left. Follow this path out into an open field and continue diagonally left across the field turning right on the grass field edge.

Follow this field edge along to a wooden footbridge on the left, cross the footbridge and continue along the field edge to a stile partly hidden in the left hand corner of the field.

Cross the stile and follow the footpath through trees and bushes, keeping the wooded area and brook to your left, to the stile and footbridge over the Ford in the left hand corner.

Cross the footbridge and go through the gate to continue along the bridleway to a pedestrian gate at the end, adjacent to Stonehouse Farm.

Go out onto the tarmac road and continue in the same direction following the road to the crossroads at the end.

Follow this grass track between hedgerows down to a footbridge and stile, cross these into an open field, bear right alongside the open ditch to turn left at the wood and continue down the field, with Black Leys wood to your right.

An abundance of bluebells in the wood around the month of May.

Cross the stile and continue along the field edge with the hedgerow on your right to the end of this field and turn left immediately after the hedge on your left to continue up this next field edge, with the hedge on your left.

At the top of this field turn right to take the footbridge on the right of the ford and follow the field track slightly diagonally right through the open gateway to follow the next field edge, with a small paddock on your left.

Continue to the end of the paddock and go through the pedestrian gate on the left to continue up this path, past the stables on your left and follow the road up to the top to emerge on Church Lane.

Cross diagonally right to go through the Churchyard and back to the Village Hall.
